EXPLANATORY NOTE

IAC/InterActiveCorp (“IAC”) is filing this registration statement to satisfy one of its obligations under the registration rights agreement, dated as of May 28, 2019, entered into among IAC, IAC FinanceCo 2, Inc. (“IAC FinanceCo”), a wholly owned subsidiary of IAC, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC in connection with IAC FinanceCo’s offering of $575 million aggregate principal amount of its 0.875% Exchangeable Senior Notes due 2026 (the “Notes”), which are exchangeable at the option of the noteholders upon the satisfaction of certain conditions into shares of IAC Common Stock, par value $0.001 (“IAC Common Stock”).

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale, from time to time, of up to 2,516,258 shares of IAC/InterActiveCorp (“IAC” or the “Company”) Common Stock, par value $0.001 (“IAC Common Stock”), by persons who receive such shares upon the exchange of the 0.875% Exchangeable Senior Notes due 2026 (the “Notes”). A $575 million aggregate principal amount of Notes was issued by a wholly owned subsidiary of IAC, IAC FinanceCo 2, Inc. (“IAC FinanceCo”), in private transactions on May 28, 2019 and June 3, 2019. The Notes were offered only to (and may be reoffered, sold or otherwise transferred only to) investors that are both qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”)) and qualified purchasers (for purposes of Section 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”). The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state laws. The Notes are guaranteed by IAC on a senior unsecured basis. The Notes are exchangeable at the option of the noteholders upon the satisfaction of certain conditions into shares of IAC Common Stock. The registration of the shares of IAC Common Stock covered by this prospectus does not necessarily mean that: (i) any of the Selling Stockholders will elect to exchange their Notes, (ii) upon any exchange of the Notes, IAC FinanceCo will elect to exchange some or all of the Notes for shares of IAC Common Stock rather than cash (or a combination thereof) or (iii) any shares of IAC Common Stock received upon the exchange of the Notes will be offered or sold by the Selling Stockholders.

Neither IAC nor IAC FinanceCo will receive any proceeds from any issuance of shares of IAC Common Stock to the Selling Stockholders or from any sale of such shares by the Selling Stockholders, but IAC has agreed to pay certain expenses relating to the registration of such shares. IAC/INTERACTIVECORP

IAC, initially a hybrid media/electronic retailing company, was incorporated in 1986 in Delaware under the name Silver King Broadcasting Company, Inc. After several name changes (first to HSN, Inc., then to USA Networks, Inc., USA Interactive, InterActiveCorp, and finally, to IAC/InterActiveCorp) and the completion of a number of significant corporate transactions over the years, the Company transformed itself into a leading media and Internet company.

IAC today operates Vimeo and Dotdash, among many other businesses, and also has majority ownership of both Match Group, which includes Tinder, Match, PlentyOfFish, OkCupid and Hinge, and ANGI Homeservices, which includes HomeAdvisor, Angie's List and Handy.

On August 7, 2019, IAC announced its intention to explore the possibility of a distribution of its interests in either or both of Match Group and ANGI Homeservices to its shareholders. On October 11, 2019, IAC disclosed that it had made a proposal to a special committee of the Board of Directors of Match Group with respect to a potential transaction involving its interest in Match Group (the "Match Group Proposal"). A description of the Match Group Proposal is set forth under the caption "Item 4. Purpose of the Transaction" of Amendments No. 13 and 14 (filed on October 11, 2019 and November 7, 2019, respectively) to the Schedule 13D relating to IAC's interest in Match Group and is incorporated herein by reference. There can be no assurance that any transaction will occur or that if a transaction does occur, as to the timing and terms of any such transaction.

On October 11, 2019, IAC also disclosed that it does not currently intend to pursue a separation transaction with respect to its interest in ANGI Homeservices during the negotiation or execution of the potential Match Group transaction. However, IAC is evaluating its equity stake in ANGI Homeservices on an ongoing basis and may or may not pursue a transaction involving ANGI Homeservices in the future.

IAC's Reportable Segments

Match Group

The Company's Match Group segment consists of the businesses and operations of Match Group. Through Match Group, the Company operates a portfolio of dating brands, including Tinder, Match, PlentyOfFish, Meetic, OkCupid, OurTime, Pairs and Hinge, as well as a number of other brands, each designed to increase user likelihood of finding a meaningful connection. As of September 30, 2019, IAC's ownership and voting interests in Match Group were 80.8% and 97.5%, respectively.

Through Match Group, the Company is a leading provider of dating products all over the world through owned and operated applications and websites. As of September 30, 2019, there were approximately 9.6 million average subscribers to the Company's dating products (calculated by summing the total number of users who purchased a subscription-based dating product at the end of each day in the quarter ended September 30, 2019, divided by the number of calendar days in such quarter).

Dating is a highly personal endeavor and consumers have a wide variety of preferences that determine what type of dating product they choose. As a result, the Company's strategy focuses on a portfolio approach of various brands in order to reach a broad range of users. The Company's dating brands are collectively available in over 40 languages to users all over the world.

All of the Company's dating products enable users to establish a profile and review the profiles of other users without charge. Each product also offers additional features, some of which are free and some of which are paid, depending on the particular product. In general, access to premium features requires a subscription, which is typically offered in packages (primarily ranging from one month to six months), depending on the product and circumstance. Prices differ meaningfully within a given brand by the duration of subscription purchased, the bundle of paid features that a user chooses to access and whether or not a subscriber is taking advantage of any special offers. In addition to subscriptions, many of the Company's dating products offer users certain features, such as the ability to promote themselves for a given period of time or to review certain profiles without any signaling to other users, and these features are offered on a pay-per-use basis. The precise mix of paid and premium features is established over time on a brand-by-brand basis and is constantly subject to iteration and evolution.

ANGI Homeservices

Through the ANGI Homeservices portfolio of digital homeservices brands, including HomeAdvisor®, Angie's List® and Handy, the Company connects millions of homeowners to home service professionals, collects reviews and allows homeowners to research, match and connect on-demand to ANGI Homeservices' network of home service professionals.

As of September 30, 2019, IAC's economic and voting interests in ANGI Homeservices were 83.7% and 98.1%, respectively.

The Company's ANGI Homeservices segment consists of the North American (United States and Canada) and European businesses and operations of ANGI Homeservices, a publicly traded holding company that was formed to facilitate the combination of the businesses within IAC's former HomeAdvisor segment with Angie's List, Inc., which transaction was completed on September 29, 2017. ANGI Homeservices acquired Handy Technologies, Inc. ("Handy"), a leading platform in the United States for connecting individuals looking for household services (primarily cleaning and handyman services) with top-quality, pre-screened independent service professionals, in October 2018.

Through the HomeAdvisor digital marketplace service (formerly known as IAC's HomeAdvisor domestic business ("HomeAdvisor")), the Company connects consumers with service professionals nationwide for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects.

HomeAdvisor provides consumers with tools and resources to help them find local, pre-screened and customer-rated home service professionals, as well as to instantly book appointments online. HomeAdvisor also connects consumers with home service professionals instantly by telephone, as well as offering several home services-related resources, such as cost guides for different types of home services projects. Through Handy, the Company connects consumers looking for household services (primarily cleaning and handyman services) with top-quality, pre-screened independent service professionals. Together, the HomeAdvisor and Handy businesses in the United States are referred to as the "Marketplace." All Marketplace matching services, related tools and directories are provided to consumers free of charge.

As of September 30, 2019, the Marketplace had a network of approximately 226,000 service professionals, each of whom had paid for consumer matches or had completed a job sourced through the HomeAdvisor and Handy platforms in September and/or had an active HomeAdvisor subscription membership. An active Home Advisor subscription membership is one for which HomeAdvisor was recognizing revenue on the last day of the quarter.

In January 2019, ANGI Homeservices acquired Fixd Repair, LLC and Fixd Services LLC (collectively, "Fixd Repair"), a home warranty and service company.

Vimeo

Through Vimeo, the Company provides basic video hosting and sharing capabilities free of charge, as well as various packages of premium video tools via a Software-as-a-Service (“SaaS”) model on a subscription basis (monthly or annual). Package capabilities may include additional video storage and high quality live streaming capabilities, robust video privacy controls, video player customization options, team collaboration and management tools, review and workflow tools, detailed analytics, lead generation and marketing tools, priority support and the ability to sell videos directly to consumers in a customized viewing experience, with the precise mix of capabilities dependent upon the tier of package purchased. As of September 30, 2019, there were approximately 1.2 million subscribers to Vimeo’s SaaS offering (including Magisto).

Through Vimeo, the Company also operates two marketplaces for buying and selling videos, the Vimeo on Demand store and the Vimeo Stock store. Through the Vimeo on Demand store, subscribers may offer their videos for sale to their audiences. Through the Vimeo Stock store, Vimeo offers stock video footage from certain licensors. If one or more Selling Stockholders satisfy certain conditions set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement, then in accordance with the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, IAC will file a prospectus supplement or a post-effective amendment naming such Selling Stockholders and stating the number of shares of IAC Common Stock offered by such Selling Stockholders.

Information about certain Selling Stockholders is set forth herein, and information about additional Selling Stockholders (if any) will be set forth in a prospectus supplement, in a post-effective amendment or in filings that IAC makes with the SEC under the Exchange Act incorporated by reference in this prospectus. Selling Stockholders, including their transferees, pledgees or donees or their successors, may, from time to time, offer and sell pursuant to this prospectus, and any accompanying prospectus supplement, any or all of the shares of IAC Common Stock that IAC may issue to such Selling Stockholder upon the exchange of the Notes.

The following table sets forth information, as of November 8, 2019, with respect to the Selling Stockholders and the number of shares of IAC Common Stock that would become beneficially owned by each Selling Stockholder should IAC issue the maximum number of shares of IAC Common Stock to such Selling Stockholder that may be offered pursuant to this prospectus. This information is based on information provided by or on behalf of the Selling Stockholders. Percentage ownership information in the following table is based on 78,800,508 of IAC Common Stock outstanding on November 1, 2019. The Selling Stockholders may offer and sell all, some or none of the shares of IAC Common Stock that IAC may issue upon the exchange of the Notes. Because the Selling Stockholders may offer all or some portion of such shares of IAC Common Stock, IAC cannot estimate the number of shares of IAC Common Stock that will be held by the Selling Stockholders upon the termination of any of these sales. In addition, the Selling Stockholders identified below may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of all or a portion of their Notes since the date on which they provided the information regarding their Notes in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Accordingly, the number of shares of IAC Common Stock issuable upon the exchange of the Notes shown in the following table below assumes exchange of the full amount of Notes held by each Selling Stockholder at the maximum exchange rate of 4.3761 shares of IAC Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes and a cash payment in lieu of any fractional shares. This exchange rate is subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain events. Accordingly, the number of shares of IAC Common Stock issued upon the exchange of the Notes may increase or decrease from time to time. The number of shares of IAC Common Stock owned by the other Selling Stockholders (or any of their future transferees) assumes that they do not beneficially own any shares of IAC Common Stock other than the IAC Common Stock that IAC may issue to them upon the exchange of the Notes.

Based upon information provided by the Selling Stockholders, except to the extent provided in the footnotes below, none of the Selling Stockholders nor any of their affiliates, officers, directors or principal equity holders, has held any positions or office (or has had any material relationship) with IAC within the past three years.

To the extent any of the Selling Stockholders identified below are broker-dealers, they may be deemed to be, under interpretations of the staff of the SEC, “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes below, IAC believes that the persons and entities named in the table below have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of IAC Common Stock listed as beneficially owned by them.

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Notes, IAC entered into the Registration Rights Agreement, covering resales of IAC Common Stock, if any, received by Selling Stockholders upon exchange of their Notes.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, IAC agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to: (i) file a shelf registration statement with the SEC and to cause such shelf registration statement to become effective on or prior to November 25, 2019, covering resales of the shares of the IAC Common Stock issuable upon the exchange of the Notes; and (ii) keep such shelf registration statement effective until the earlier of the 20th trading day immediately following the maturity date of the Notes and the date on which there are no longer any Notes or "restricted" (within the meaning of Rule 144) shares of IAC Common Stock outstanding that have been received upon exchange of the Notes. However, IAC will not be required to keep such shelf registration statement effective if IAC is no longer the legal entity (the "Reference Entity") whose common stock the Notes would be exchangeable or convertible into on such date and the successor Reference Entity has executed the requisite joinder agreement to the Registration Rights Agreement.

Selling Stockholders that sell shares of IAC Common Stock pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part are required to:

- deliver, to the extent required by applicable law, a prospectus to the purchaser of IAC Common Stock sold pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part;

- notify IAC when they have sold all shares of IAC Common Stock held by them; and
- promptly notify IAC in the event that any information supplied in writing for inclusion in the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part is untrue or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make such information not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing and in such event: (i) immediately discontinue any sale or other disposition of shares of IAC Common Stock pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part until the filing of an amendment or supplement to such prospectus as may be necessary so that such prospectus does not contain an untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading in the light of the circumstances then existing; and (ii) use reasonable best efforts to assist IAC as may be appropriate to make such amendment or supplement effective for such purpose.

Under the Registration Rights Agreement, IAC has the right to suspend use of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part upon the occurrence or existence of any pending corporate development, public filing with the SEC or any other business reason that in IAC's reasonable judgment makes it appropriate to suspend the availability of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, the period during which the availability of the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part is suspended (the "Deferral Period") cannot exceed 45 days in any 90-day period or 120 days in any 360-day period. However, if the event triggering the Deferral Period relates to a proposed or pending material business transaction, the disclosure of which the Board of Directors or a committee thereof determines in good faith would be reasonably likely to impede the ability to consummate the transaction or would otherwise be detrimental to IAC and its subsidiaries taken a whole, IAC may extend the Deferral Period from 45 days to 60 days in any 90-day period or from 120 days to 150 days in any 360-day period. IAC will notify each Selling Stockholder, who has delivered the appropriately completed notice and questionnaire to IAC, of any suspension period, but IAC does not need to specify the nature of the event giving rise to a suspension in any such notice.

Anti-Takeover Provisions in the Bylaws

The Bylaws contain provisions that could delay or make more difficult the acquisition of IAC by means of a hostile tender offer, open market purchases, a proxy contest or otherwise. In addition, the Bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of holders of IAC Preferred Stock, only the Chairman of the Board of Directors or a majority of the Board of Directors may call a special meeting of stockholders.

Effect of Delaware Anti-Takeover Statute

IAC is subject to Section 203 ("Section 203") of the DGCL, which regulates corporate acquisitions. Section 203 generally prevents corporations from engaging in a business combination with any interested stockholder for three years following the date that the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless that business combination has been approved in one of a number of specific ways. For purposes of Section 203, a "business combination" includes, among other things, a merger or consolidation involving IAC and the interested stockholder and a sale of more than 10% of IAC's assets. In general, the anti-takeover law defines an "interested stockholder" as any entity or person beneficially owning 15% or more of a company's outstanding voting stock and any entity or person affiliated or associated with such entity or person. A Delaware corporation may "opt out" of Section 203 with an express provision in its original certificate of incorporation or an express provision in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws resulting from amendments approved by holders of at least a majority of a corporation's outstanding voting stock. IAC has not "opted out" of the provisions of Section 203.

Action by Written Consent

Under Section 228 of the DGCL, unless a company's certificate of incorporation expressly prohibits action by the written consent of stockholders, any action required or permitted to be taken by stockholders at a duly called annual or special meeting of such stockholders may be taken by consent in writing executed by stockholders possessing not less than the minimum number of votes necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting. The Certificate of Incorporation does not expressly prohibit action by the written consent of stockholders.

Dividend Policy

IAC does not currently expect that cash or other dividends will be paid by it in the near future. Any future cash or other dividend declarations are subject to the determination of the Board of Directors.

Limitation of Liability and Indemnification

Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers, as well as other employees and individuals, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings in which such person is made a party by reason of such person being or having been a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation. Section 145 of the DGCL also permits a corporation to pay expenses incurred by a director or officer in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding subject to receipt of an undertaking by such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The DGCL provides that Section 145 is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide for indemnification of IAC's directors and officers (and their legal representatives), and of those serving at the request of the Board of Directors or officers as an employee or agent of the corporation, or as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, except that IAC shall indemnify a person for a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors. The Bylaws provide for mandatory advancement of expenses to persons entitled to indemnification in defending any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided that if the DGCL so requires, such persons provide an undertaking to repay such amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. From time to time, IAC's directors and officers may be provided with indemnification agreements that are consistent with or greater than the foregoing provisions and, to the extent that such officers and directors serve as executive officers or directors of subsidiaries of IAC, consistent with the indemnification provisions of the charter documents of such subsidiaries. IAC has policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance that insure directors and officers against the costs of defense, settlement and/or payment of judgment under certain circumstances. IAC believes that these agreements and arrangements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation is not personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The Certificate of Incorporation provides for such limitation of liability.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES FOR NON-U.S. HOLDERS

The following is a general discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences applicable to Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below) with respect to the ownership and disposition of shares of IAC Common Stock offered by this prospectus, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax considerations. This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder (“Treasury Regulations”), administrative rulings and published positions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) and judicial decisions, each as in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change and to different interpretations. Changes to any of the foregoing authorities could apply on a retroactive basis, and could affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences described below.

This discussion is for general information only and does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax considerations that may be relevant to a particular investor’s circumstances, does not discuss any aspect of U.S. federal tax law other than income taxation, and does not address any considerations under any state, local or non-U.S. tax laws. In addition, this discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax or any considerations with respect to any withholding required pursuant to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance provisions of the HIRE Act of 2010 (including the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and intergovernmental agreements entered in connection therewith). IAC believes that it is not, and it does not anticipate becoming (and the following discussion assumes that it is not and will not become), a “United States real property holding corporation” within the meaning of Section 897(c)(2) of the Code, but no assurances can be given with respect thereto.

This discussion addresses only shares of IAC Common Stock held as a “capital asset” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment) and does not address U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to holders that may be subject to special tax rules, including, for example, banks or other financial institutions, mutual funds, dealers or brokers in securities, traders in securities that elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, governmental agencies or instrumentalities, entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes or other flow-through entities (or investors therein), holders subject to the alternative minimum tax, certain former citizens or residents of the United States, holders that hold IAC Common Stock as part of a “hedge,” “straddle,” “constructive sale,” “conversion transaction” or other integrated transaction, holders that own or have owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) 5% or more of the IAC Common Stock outstanding (by vote or value), persons required to accelerate the recognition of any item of gross income with respect to the notes as a result of such income being recognized on an “applicable financial statement,” “controlled foreign corporations,” and “passive foreign investment companies.”

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY, AND IS NOT INTENDED TO CONSTITUTE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF ALL TAX CONSEQUENCES RELATING TO THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF IAC COMMON STOCK. PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF IAC COMMON STOCK, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS, ANY TAX TREATY AND ANY CHANGES (OR PROPOSED CHANGES) THERETO. THIS DISCUSSION SHOULD NOT BE CONSTRUED AS LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE FOR ANY PARTICULAR PERSON.

For purposes of this discussion, the term “Non-U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of shares of IAC Common Stock that is not, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

- a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source;
- a trust (a) if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust’s administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) that has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or
- a partnership (or an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership).

If a partnership (or any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds shares of IAC Common Stock, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in such partnership will generally depend on the status of such partner and the activities of such partnership. Such a partnership and any partners in such a partnership should consult their own tax advisors with regard to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of shares of IAC Common Stock.

Distributions on IAC Common Stock.

Any distributions paid to a Non-U.S. Holder with respect to shares of IAC Common Stock generally will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a 30% rate (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty, provided that such Non-U.S. Holder timely provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly completed and executed applicable IRS Form W-8 and satisfies any other applicable requirements), unless such distributions are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

Distributions paid to a Non-U.S. Holder that are effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States) generally will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax, provided that such Non-U.S. Holder timely provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly completed and executed IRS Form W-8ECI and satisfies any other applicable requirements. Instead, such payments generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such Non-U.S. Holder were a “United States person” (within the meaning of the Code). A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation may be subject to an additional “branch profits tax” at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) with respect to such payments, subject to certain adjustments.

Non-U.S. Holders eligible for an exemption from or reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax under an applicable income tax treaty may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under an applicable income tax treaty and the requirements for claiming any such benefits.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of IAC Common Stock.

Subject to the discussion below under “—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding,” a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any gain realized upon the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of IAC Common Stock unless:

- such gain is effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States); or
- such Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the disposition and certain other conditions are met.

Gain described in the first bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates in the same manner as if such Non-U.S. Holder were a “United States person” (within the meaning of the Code). A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation may be subject to an additional “branch profits tax” at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) with respect to such gain, subject to certain adjustments.

A Non-U.S. Holder described in the second bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on any gain realized, which gain may be offset by U.S.-source capital losses, if any, of the Non-U.S. Holder.

The proceeds received by a Non-U.S. Holder from a redemption of shares of IAC Common Stock by IAC may be treated as a distribution under certain circumstances. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the effect of any such redemption.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, a Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to information reporting with respect to payments of dividends in respect of IAC Common Stock. These reporting requirements apply regardless of whether withholding is reduced or eliminated by an applicable income tax treaty. Copies of this information may also be made available to tax authorities in the country in which a Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established, pursuant to the provisions of a specific tax treaty or agreement. U.S. federal backup withholding (currently, at a rate of 24%) will be imposed on certain payments to Non-U.S. Holders that fail to furnish the information required under U.S. information reporting rules. Such payments to a Non-U.S. Holder generally will be exempt from backup withholding if such Non-U.S. Holder timely provides the applicable withholding agent with a properly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 or otherwise establishes an exemption.

Under applicable Treasury Regulations, the payment of proceeds from the disposition of IAC Common Stock by a Non-U.S. Holder effected at a U.S. office of a broker generally will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless such Non-U.S. Holder timely provides a properly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 certifying such Non-U.S. Holder’s non-U.S. status or such Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption. The payment of proceeds from the disposition of IAC Common Stock by a Non-U.S. Holder effected at a non-U.S. office of a U.S. broker or a non-U.S. broker with certain specified U.S. connections generally will be subject to information reporting (but not backup withholding, unless the applicable withholding agent has actual knowledge or reason to know that such Non-U.S. Holder is a “United States person” within the meaning of the Code) unless such Non-U.S. Holder timely provides a properly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 certifying such Non-U.S. Holder’s non-U.S. status or such Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules generally will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a Non-U.S. Holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the application of these rules to their particular circumstances.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale from time to time of shares of IAC Common Stock by the Selling Stockholders. As discussed under the caption “Description of Capital Stock—Registration Rights Agreement,” any shares of IAC Common Stock received by the Selling Stockholders upon exchange of their Notes will be “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act and will contain a legend setting out such restriction and will be segregated until such time as they are sold under the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. IAC is registering the resale of shares of IAC Common Stock for sale to provide the holders thereof with freely tradable securities, but such shares will not become freely tradable until sold pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. There can be no assurance that the Selling Stockholders will sell any or all of the shares of IAC Common Stock registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus or any accompanying prospectus supplement forms a part.

The Selling Stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of the shares of IAC Common Stock beneficially owned by them and offered hereby directly or indirectly through one or more broker-dealers or agents. The Selling Stockholders will be responsible for any agent’s commissions. The IAC Common Stock may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. The Selling Stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares of IAC Common Stock:

- on the NASDAQ or any other national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;
- through the writing of options, swaps or derivatives whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;
- through ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- through block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- through purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by such broker-dealer for its account;
- through an exchange or market distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange or market;
- in privately negotiated transactions;
- through the settlement of short sales;
- through broker-dealers that may agree with the Selling Stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- through a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Stockholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus or any accompanying prospectus supplement.

In addition, the Selling Stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers who may engage in short sales of shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the Selling Stockholders. The Selling Stockholders may also sell shares short and deliver the shares to close out such short position.

Broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. If the Selling Stockholders effect such transactions through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Stockholders or commissions from purchasers of the shares of IAC Common Stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, or both (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be less than or in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved).

The Selling Stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The Selling Stockholders will be subject to the Exchange Act and the rules promulgated thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of IAC Common Stock by the Selling Stockholders and their affiliates.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, IAC has agreed to bear all other costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the registration of the shares of IAC Common Stock covered by this prospectus. These may include, without limitation, all registration and filing fees, NASDAQ listing fees, fees and expenses of IAC’s counsel and accountants, and blue sky fees and expenses. IAC has also agreed to reimburse the Selling Stockholders for the reasonable fees and disbursements of one firm or counsel (which shall be a nationally recognized law firm experienced in securities matters designated by the holders of at least 51% of the IAC Common Stock registered under this prospectus, prospectus supplement or any post-effective amendment to it) to act as counsel for the Selling Stockholders in connection therewith. However, IAC does not have any obligation to pay any underwriting fees, discounts or commissions attributable to the sale of such IAC Common Stock, or any fees and expenses of any broker-dealer or other financial intermediary engaged by any Selling Stockholder. IAC has also agreed to indemnify each Selling Stockholder and their officers and directors, and any person who controls such Selling Stockholder, against certain losses, claims, damages and expenses arising under the securities laws.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the IAC Common Stock will be passed upon by Gregg Winiarski, Executive Vice President, General Counsel & Secretary of IAC.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers as well as other employees and individuals against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings in which such person is made a party by reason of such person being or having been a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation. Section 145 of the DGCL also permits a corporation to pay expenses incurred by a director or officer in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding subject to receipt of an undertaking by such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall be ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The DGCL provides that Section 145 is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide for indemnification of the corporation's directors and officers (and their legal representatives), and of those serving at the request of the Board of Directors or officers as an employee or agent of the corporation, or as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, except that the corporation shall indemnify a person for a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if the proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors. The Bylaws provide for mandatory advancement of expenses to persons entitled to indemnification in defending any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided that, if the DGCL so requires, such persons provide an undertaking to repay such amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. From time to time, IAC directors and officers may be provided with indemnification agreements that are consistent with or greater than the foregoing provisions and, to the extent such officers and directors serve as executive officers or directors of subsidiaries of IAC, consistent with the indemnification provisions of the charter documents of such subsidiaries. IAC has policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance which insure directors and officers against the costs of defense, settlement and/or payment of judgment under certain circumstances. IAC believes that these agreements and arrangements are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL permits a corporation to provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director of the corporation is not personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions; or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The Certificate of Incorporation provides for such limitation of liability.

Insofar as the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws provide for indemnification of directors or officers for liabilities arising under the Securities Act, IAC has been informed that, in the opinion of the SEC, this indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 17. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
- (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and
- (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act, that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

- (i) each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
- (ii) each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, each undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
- (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to existing provisions or arrangements whereby the registrant may indemnify a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant against liabilities arising under the Securities Act, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than for the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-3 of IAC/InterActiveCorp

I am the Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of IAC/InterActiveCorp, a Delaware corporation (“IAC” or the “Company”). This opinion is being delivered in connection with the shelf registration statement on Form S-3ASR (the “Registration Statement”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) relating to the offering by certain selling stockholders on a delayed basis from time to time, pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), of 2,516,258 shares of IAC’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Securities”). The Securities are issuable upon the exchange of 0.875% Exchangeable Senior Notes due 2026 (the “Notes”) in IAC FinanceCo 2, Inc., a Delaware limited corporation (the “IAC FinanceCo”), a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of IAC.

The Registration Statement includes a prospectus relating to the Securities (the “Securities Prospectus”). In rendering this opinion, I have reviewed the originals, or copies identified to my satisfaction, of the Registration Statement, the Securities Prospectus, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of IAC, as amended, and such corporate records of IAC, certificates of public officials, officers of IAC and other persons, and other documents, agreements and instruments, as I have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed below. In my review, I have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of the originals of the documents submitted to me and the conformity to authentic originals of any documents submitted as copies. I have further assumed, as to matters of fact, the truthfulness of the representations made in certificates of public officials and officers of IAC.

The Company is a Delaware corporation, and while I am not engaged in the practice of law in the State of Delaware, I am generally familiar with the Delaware General Corporation Law as presently in effect and have made such inquiries as I considered necessary to render this opinion. I am a member of the Bar of the State of New York and express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the federal laws of the United States, the laws of the State of New York and the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, I am of the opinion that the Securities are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

The opinion set forth above is subject to (i) the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally (including without limitation all laws relating to fraudulent transfers) and (ii) the effect of general principles of equity, including without limitation concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether considered in a proceeding in equity or at law)

I hereby consent to be named in the Registration Statement and in Securities Prospectus as the attorney who passed upon the legality of the Securities and to the filing of a copy of this opinion as Exhibit 5.1 to the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, I do not thereby admit that I am in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933.
