NOTE 1—THE COMPANY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

IAC is a leading media and Internet company. The Company is organized into four segments: The Match Group, which consists of dating, education and fitness businesses with brands such as Match, OkCupid, Tinder, The Princeton Review and DailyBurn; Search & Applications, which includes brands such as About.com, Ask.com, Dictionary.com and Investopedia; Media, which includes businesses such as Vimeo, Electus, The Daily Beast and CollegeHumor; and eCommerce, which includes HomeAdvisor and ShoeBuy. IAC's brands and products are among the most recognized in the world, reaching users in over 200 countries.

On June 25, 2015, the Company announced the intent to pursue an initial public offering ("IPO") of less than 20% of the common stock of The Match Group. The IPO is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of 2015.

All references to "IAC," the "Company," "we," "our" or "us" in this report are to IAC/InterActiveCorp.

Basis of Presentation

The Company prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

Basis of Consolidation and Accounting for Investments

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, all entities that are wholly-owned by the Company and all entities in which the Company has a controlling financial interest. Intercompany transactions and accounts have been eliminated.

Investments in the common stock or in-substance common stock of entities in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial matters of the investee, but does not have a controlling financial interest, are accounted for using the equity method and are included in "Long-term investments" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP for interim financial information and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Accounting Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions that impact the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

On an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates its estimates and judgments including those related to: the fair values of marketable securities and other investments; the recoverability of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets; the useful lives and recovery of definite-lived intangible assets and property and equipment; the carrying value of accounts receivable, including the determination of the allowance for doubtful accounts and revenue reserves; the fair value of acquisition-related contingent consideration; the liabilities for uncertain tax positions; the valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets; and the fair value of and forfeiture rates for stock-based awards, among others. The Company bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience, its forecasts and budgets and other factors that the Company considers relevant.

IAC/INTERACTIVECORP
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

Certain Risks and Concentrations

A substantial portion of the Company's revenue is derived from online advertising, the market for which is highly competitive and rapidly changing. Significant changes in this industry or changes in advertising spending behavior or in customer buying behavior could adversely affect our operating results. Most of the Company's online advertising revenue is attributable to a services agreement with Google Inc. ("Google"), which expires on March 31, 2016. Our services agreement requires that we comply with certain guidelines promulgated by Google. Subject to certain limitations, Google may unilaterally update its policies and guidelines, which could require modifications to, or prohibit and/or render obsolete certain of our products, services and/or business practices, which could be costly to address or otherwise have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, revenue earned from Google is $308.2 million and $647.8 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, revenue earned from Google is $349.5 million and $704.6 million, respectively. This revenue is earned by the businesses comprising the Search & Applications segment. Accounts receivable related to revenue earned from Google totaled $108.3 million and $118.7 million at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively.

Recent Accounting Pronouncement

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which clarifies the principles for recognizing revenue and develops a common standard for all industries. In July 2015, the FASB decided to defer the effective date for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted beginning on the original effective date of December 15, 2016. Upon adoption, ASU No. 2014-09 may either be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented or retrospectively with the cumulative effect recognized as of the date of initial application. The Company is currently evaluating the new guidance and has not yet determined whether the adoption of the new standard will have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements or the method and timing of adoption.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

NOTE 2—INCOME TAXES

At the end of each interim period, the Company makes its best estimate of the annual expected effective income tax rate and applies that rate to its ordinary year-to-date earnings or loss. The income tax provision or benefit related to significant, unusual, or extraordinary items, if applicable, that will be separately reported or reported net of their related tax effects are individually computed and recognized in the interim period in which they occur. In addition, the effect of changes in enacted tax laws or rates, tax status, judgment on the realizability of a beginning-of-the-year deferred tax asset in future years or the liabilities for uncertain tax positions is recognized in the interim period in which the change occurs.

The computation of the annual expected effective income tax rate at each interim period requires certain estimates and assumptions including, but not limited to, the expected pre-tax income (or loss) for the year, projections of the proportion of income (and/or loss) earned and taxed in foreign jurisdictions, permanent and temporary differences, and the likelihood of the realization of deferred tax assets generated in the current year. The accounting estimates used to compute the provision or benefit for income taxes may change as new events occur, more experience is acquired, additional information is obtained or our tax environment changes. To the extent that the expected annual effective income tax rate changes during a quarter, the effect of the change on prior quarters is included in income tax provision in the quarter in which the change occurs.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, the Company recorded an income tax benefit for continuing operations of $12.0 million and $5.8 million, respectively. The income tax benefit for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 are due primarily to the realization of certain deferred tax assets, a reduction in tax reserves and related interest due to the expiration of statutes of limitations, and the non-taxable gain on contingent consideration fair value adjustments in the current year period, partially offset by state taxes. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, the Company recorded an income tax provision for continuing operations of $29.9 million and $51.3 million, respectively, which represents effective income tax rates of 251% and 76%, respectively. The effective rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2014 are higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to the largely unbenefited loss associated with the write-downs of certain of the Company's investments, interest on reserves for income tax contingencies, and state taxes, partially offset by foreign income taxed at lower rates.

The Company recognizes interest and, if applicable, penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in the income tax provision. Included in the income tax provision for continuing operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, is a $0.1 million benefit and a $0.2 million benefit, respectively, net of related deferred taxes, for interest on unrecognized tax benefits. At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company has accrued $2.2 million and $2.8 million, respectively, for the payment of interest. At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company has accrued $2.3 million and $2.9 million, respectively, for penalties.

The Company is routinely under audit by federal, state, local and foreign authorities in the area of income tax. These audits include questioning the timing and the amount of income and deductions and the allocation of income and deductions among various tax jurisdictions. The Internal Revenue Service is currently auditing the Company's federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2010 through 2012. Various other jurisdictions are open to examination for various tax years beginning with 2009. Income taxes payable include reserves considered sufficient to pay assessments that may result from examination of prior year tax returns. Changes to reserves from period to period and differences between amounts paid, if any, upon resolution of audits and amounts previously provided may be material. Differences between the reserves for uncertain tax positions and the amounts owed by the Company are recorded in the period they become known.

At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, are $25.9 million and $33.2 million, respectively. If unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2015 are subsequently recognized, $23.9 million, net of related deferred tax assets and interest, would reduce income tax provision for continuing operations. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that its unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by $3.4 million within twelve months of June 30, 2015 primarily due to settlements and expiration of statutes of limitations.

NOTE 3—MARKETABLE SECURITIES

At June 30, 2015, current available-for-sale marketable securities are as follows:

	Amortized Cost	Gross Unrealized Gains	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value
(In thousands)
Corporate debt securities	$ 232,766	$ 151	$ —	$ 232,917

The contractual maturities of debt securities classified as current available-for-sale at June 30, 2015 are as follows:

	Amortized Cost	Fair Value
(In thousands)
Due in one year or less	$ 95,946	$ 95,979
Due after one year through five years	136,820	136,938
Total	$ 232,766	$ 232,917

The following table presents the proceeds from maturities and sales of current and non-current available-for-sale marketable securities and the related gross realized gains:

Gross realized gains	5	2,299	5	2,299

There were no gross realized losses from the maturities and sales of available-for-sale marketable securities for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014. However, during the second quarter of 2015, the Company recognized $0.3 million in losses that were deemed to be other-than-temporary related to various corporate debt securities that are expected to be sold by the Company in the third quarter of 2015, in part, to fund its cash needs related to The Match Group's acquisition of PlentyOfFish for $575 million.

Gross realized gains from the maturities and sales of available-for-sale marketable securities and losses that were deemed to be other-than-temporary are included in "Other (expense) income, net" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

The specific-identification method is used to determine the cost of securities sold and the amount of unrealized gains and losses reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income into earnings.

NOTE 4—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company categorizes its financial instruments measured at fair value into a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in pricing the asset or liability. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1: Observable inputs obtained from independent sources, such as quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Other inputs, which are observable directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data. The fair values of the Company's Level 2 financial assets are primarily obtained from observable market prices for identical underlying securities that may not be actively traded. Certain of these securities may have different market prices from multiple market data sources, in which case an average market price is used.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data and require the Company to develop its own assumptions, based on the best information available in the circumstances, about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the assets or liabilities. See below for a discussion of fair value measurements made using Level 3 inputs.

The following tables present the Company's financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Auction rate security

The Company's auction rate security is valued by discounting the estimated future cash flow streams of the security over the life of the security. Credit spreads and other risk factors are also considered in establishing fair value. The cost basis of the auction rate security is $10.0 million, with gross unrealized losses of $3.4 million and $3.9 million at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively. The unrealized losses are included in "Accumulated other comprehensive loss" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. At June 30, 2015, the auction rate security is rated BBB- and matures in 2035. The Company does not consider the auction rate security to be other-than-temporarily impaired at June 30, 2015, due to its credit rating and because the Company does not intend to sell this security, and it is not more likely than not that the Company will be required to sell this security, before the recovery of its amortized cost basis, which may be maturity.

Contingent Consideration Arrangements

As of June 30, 2015, there are nine contingent consideration arrangements related to business acquisitions. Eight of the contingent consideration arrangements have limits as to the maximum amount that can be paid; the maximum contingent payments related to these arrangements is $240.7 million and the fair value of these arrangements at June 30, 2015 is $31.4 million. The fair value of the one contingent consideration arrangement without a limit on the maximum amount is $0.5 million at June 30, 2015. The contingent consideration arrangements are generally based upon earnings performance and/or operating metrics such as monthly active users. The Company typically determines the fair value of the contingent consideration arrangements by using a probability-weighted analysis to determine the amount of the gross liability, and, if the arrangement is long-term in nature, applying a discount rate that captures the risks associated with the obligation. The number of scenarios in the probability-weighted analyses can vary; generally, more scenarios are prepared for longer duration and more complex arrangements. The contingent consideration arrangements fair values at June 30, 2015 reflect discount rates ranging from 12-25%.

The fair values of the contingent consideration arrangements are sensitive to changes in the forecasts of earnings and/or the relevant operating metrics and changes in discount rates. The Company remeasures the fair value of the contingent consideration arrangements each reporting period, and changes are recognized in "General and administrative expense" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations. The contingent consideration arrangement liability at June 30, 2015 includes a current portion of $2.8 million and non-current portion of $29.1 million, which are included in "Accrued expenses and other current liabilities" and "Other long-term liabilities," respectively, in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis

The Company's non-financial assets, such as goodwill, intangible assets and property and equipment, as well as equity and cost method investments, are adjusted to fair value only when an impairment charge is recognized. Such fair value measurements are based predominantly on Level 3 inputs.

Cost method investments

At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the carrying values of the Company's investments accounted for under the cost method totaled $103.3 million and $90.9 million, respectively, and are included in "Long-term investments" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet. The Company evaluates each cost method investment for impairment on a quarterly basis and recognizes an impairment loss if a decline in value is determined to be other-than-temporary. If the Company has not identified events or changes in circumstances that may have a significant adverse effect on the fair value of a cost method investment, then the fair value of such cost method investment is not estimated, as it is impracticable to do so.

In the second quarter of 2014, the Company recorded $64.2 million of other-than-temporary impairment charges for certain cost method investments as a result of our assessment of the near-term prospects and financial condition of the investees. This charge is included in "Other (expense) income, net" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

Equity method investments

In the second quarter of 2014, the Company recorded a $4.2 million other-than-temporary impairment charge on an equity method investment following the sale of a majority of the investee's assets. This charge is included in "Other (expense) income, net" in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

Long-term marketable equity securities

The cost basis of the Company's long-term marketable equity security at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014 is $8.7 million, with a gross unrealized gain of $2.7 million and loss of $1.2 million at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively. The gross unrealized gain at June 30, 2015 and gross unrealized loss at December 31, 2014 are included in "Accumulated other comprehensive loss" in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Total long-term debt	$ 1,000,000	$ 1,080,000

^(a) $80.0 million reflected as short-term debt at June 30, 2015 as the Liberty Bonds are scheduled to be redeemed on September 1, 2015.

The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes were issued on November 15, 2013 and December 21, 2012, respectively. On December 21, 2012, the Company entered into a $300 million revolving credit facility, which expires on December 21, 2017. The annual fee to maintain the revolving credit facility is 30 basis points. At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, there are no outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility.

The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes are unconditionally guaranteed by certain domestic subsidiaries, which are designated as guarantor subsidiaries. The guarantor subsidiaries are the same for the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes and the revolving credit facility; any borrowings under the revolving credit facility would also be secured by the stock of certain of our domestic and foreign subsidiaries. See Note 10 for guarantor and non-guarantor financial information.

The indentures governing the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness in the event we are not in compliance with the maximum leverage ratio of 3.0 to 1.0. In addition, the terms of the revolving credit facility require that we maintain a leverage ratio of not more than 3.0 to 1.0 and restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness. As of June 30, 2015, the Company was in compliance with all of these covenants.

^(a) If the effect is dilutive, weighted average common shares outstanding include the incremental shares that would be issued upon the assumed exercise of stock options and vesting of restricted stock units ("RSUs"). For the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 approximately 1.0 million and 1.2 million potentially dilutive securities, respectively, are excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share because their inclusion would have been anti-dilutive. For the six months ended June 30, 2014, there are no securities that are excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share.

^(b) For the three months ended June 30, 2014, the Company had a loss from continuing operations and as a result, approximately 11.5 million potentially dilutive securities were excluded for computing dilutive earnings per share because the impact would have been anti-dilutive. Accordingly, the weighted average basic shares outstanding were used to compute all earnings per share amounts.

NOTE 8—SEGMENT INFORMATION

The overall concept that IAC employs in determining its operating segments is to present the financial information in a manner consistent with how the chief operating decision maker views the businesses, how the businesses are organized as to segment management, and the focus of the businesses with regards to the types of services or products offered or the target market. Operating segments are combined for reporting purposes if they meet certain aggregation criteria, which principally relate to the similarity of their economic characteristics or, in the case of the eCommerce reportable segment, do not meet the quantitative thresholds that require presentation as separate operating segments.

The Company's primary financial measure is Adjusted EBITDA, which is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of (i) amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets and (ii) gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements. The Company believes this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to IAC's statement of operations of certain expenses.

The following tables reconcile Adjusted EBITDA to operating income (loss) for the Company's reportable segments:

NOTE 9—CONTINGENCIES

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is a party to various lawsuits. The Company establishes reserves for specific legal matters when it determines that the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome is probable and the loss is reasonably estimable. Management has also identified certain other legal matters where we believe an unfavorable outcome is not probable and, therefore, no reserve is established. Although management currently believes that resolving claims against us, including claims where an unfavorable outcome is reasonably possible, will not have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company, these matters are subject to inherent uncertainties and management's view of these matters may change in the future. The Company also evaluates other contingent matters, including income and non-income tax contingencies, to assess the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome and estimated extent of potential loss. It is possible that an unfavorable outcome of one or more of these lawsuits or other contingencies could have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company. See Note 2 for additional information related to income tax contingencies.

NOTE 10—GUARANTOR AND NON-GUARANTOR FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes are unconditionally guaranteed, jointly and severally, by certain domestic subsidiaries that are 100% owned by the Company. The following tables present condensed consolidating financial information at June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014 and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014 for: IAC, on a stand-alone basis; the combined guarantor subsidiaries of IAC; the combined non-guarantor subsidiaries of IAC; and IAC on a consolidated basis.

NOTE 11—SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On July 14, 2015, the Company announced that The Match Group had entered into a definitive agreement to purchase PlentyOfFish for $575 million in cash. The acquisition is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2015.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

GENERAL

Management Overview

IAC is a leading media and Internet company. The Company is organized into four segments: The Match Group, which consists of dating, education and fitness businesses with brands such as Match, OkCupid, Tinder, The Princeton Review and DailyBurn; Search & Applications, which includes brands such as About.com, Ask.com, Dictionary.com and Investopedia; Media, which includes businesses such as Vimeo, Electus, The Daily Beast and CollegeHumor; and eCommerce, which includes HomeAdvisor and ShoeBuy. IAC's brands and products are among the most recognized in the world, reaching users in over 200 countries.

On June 25, 2015, the Company announced the intent to pursue an initial public offering ("IPO") of less than 20% of the common stock of The Match Group. The IPO is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of 2015.

For a more detailed description of the Company's operating businesses, see the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

A substantial portion of the Company's revenue is derived from online advertising. Most of the Company's online advertising revenue is attributable to our services agreement with Google Inc. ("Google"), which expires on March 31, 2016. Our services agreement requires that we comply with certain guidelines promulgated by Google. Subject to certain limitations, Google may unilaterally update its policies and guidelines, which could require modifications to, or prohibit and/or render obsolete certain of our products, services and/or business practices, which could be costly to address or otherwise have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, revenue earned from Google is $308.2 million and $647.8 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2014, revenue earned from Google is $349.5 million and $704.6 million, respectively. This revenue is earned by the businesses comprising the Search & Applications segment.

Factors Affecting Consolidated Results

For the three months ended June 30, 2015, the Company delivered 2% revenue growth; however, Adjusted EBITDA and operating income declined 23% and 34%, respectively. The revenue increase was driven by strong growth from The Match Group and eCommerce, partially offset by declines at Search & Applications. The Adjusted EBITDA and operating income declines were driven by lower revenue at Search & Applications, $9.0 million of costs at The Match Group related to the ongoing consolidation and streamlining of technology systems and European operations at our Dating businesses and increased investment at Media and eCommerce.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015, the Company delivered 3% revenue growth; however, Adjusted EBITDA and operating income declined 26% and 42%, respectively. The consolidated results for the six months were driven primarily by the factors described above.

Results of Operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2014

For the three months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2014

Search & Applications revenue decreased 11% reflecting declines from Websites (which is principally composed of Ask.com, About.com, CityGrid, Dictionary.com, Investopedia, PriceRunner and Ask.fm) and Applications (which includes our direct-to-consumer downloadable desktop search and mobile applications operations ("B2C") and our partnership operations ("B2B")). Websites revenue decreased 20% to $164.8 million due primarily to a decline in revenue at Ask.com and certain legacy businesses, partially offset by strong growth at About.com. Applications revenue decreased 2% to $186.5 million due to lower revenue from our B2B operations, partially offset by 18% growth from our B2C operations driven by higher queries from our desktop search applications and from the contribution from our mobile applications (via our acquisition of Apalon on November 3, 2014).

The Match Group revenue increased 19%, or 25% excluding the effects of foreign exchange, driven by a 7% increase in Dating revenue and 370% increase in non-dating revenue. Dating North America (which includes Match, Chemistry, People Media, OkCupid, Tinder and other dating businesses operating within the United States and Canada) revenue increased 12% to $155.0 million driven by an 11% increase in paid subscribers. Dating International (which includes Meetic, Tinder's international operations and all other dating businesses operating outside of the United States and Canada) revenue decreased 2% despite a 34% increase in paid subscribers, due to foreign exchange effects. Excluding foreign exchange effects, total Dating revenue and Dating International revenue would have increased 14% and 18%, respectively. Non-dating (consisting of The Princeton Review, Tutor.com and DailyBurn) revenue benefited from the acquisition of The Princeton Review on August 1, 2014.

Media revenue decreased 1% despite the contribution from IAC Films and strong growth at Vimeo, driven by lower revenue from Electus, in part to the timing of certain projects. IAC Films released the movie While We're Young in theaters in March 2015.

eCommerce revenue increased 17% due to 26% growth at HomeAdvisor driven by domestic revenue and service requests increasing 41% and 49%, respectively. Excluding foreign exchange effects, HomeAdvisor revenue would have increased 29%.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2014

Search & Applications revenue decreased 7% reflecting declines from Websites and Applications. Websites and Applications revenue decreased 13% and 1%, respectively, to $354.6 million and $379.9 million, respectively. The decreases in Websites and Applications revenue are primarily due to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

The Match Group revenue increased 16%, or 22% excluding the effects of foreign exchange, driven by a 5% increase in Dating revenue and 371% increase in non-dating revenue, due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion. Dating North America revenue increased 10% to $300.3 million and Dating International revenue decreased 5% to $132.8 million. Excluding foreign exchange effects, total Dating revenue and Dating International revenue would have increased 11% and 13%, respectively.

Media and eCommerce revenue increased 9% and 15%, respectively, principally due to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

Cost of revenue

Cost of revenue consists primarily of traffic acquisition costs and includes payments made to partners who distribute our B2B customized browser-based applications, integrate our paid listings into their websites or direct traffic to our websites. These payments include amounts based on revenue share and other arrangements. Cost of revenue also includes ShoeBuy's cost of products sold and shipping and handling costs, production costs related to media produced by Electus and other businesses within our Media segment, content acquisition costs, expenses associated with the operation of the Company's data centers, including compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in data center functions, rent, energy and hosting fees.

For the three months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2014

	Three Months Ended June 30,			2014
	2015	$ Change	% Change

Cost of revenue in 2015 decreased from 2014 due to a decrease of $47.0 million from Search & Applications, partially offset by an increase of $19.7 million from The Match Group.

- The Search & Applications decrease was primarily due to a reduction of $48.3 million in traffic acquisition costs driven by a decline in revenue at Ask.com and our B2B operations.
- The Match Group increase was primarily due to the acquisition of The Princeton Review and increases in revenue share payments made in connection with in-app purchases sold through Dating's mobile products and hosting fees.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2014

As a percentage of revenue	24%			28%

Cost of revenue in 2015 decreased from 2014 due to a decrease of $84.0 million from Search & Applications, partially offset by increases of $32.7 million from The Match Group and $6.8 million from Media.

- The Search & Applications decrease and The Match Group increase are primarily due to the factors described above in the three month discussion.
- The Media increase was primarily due to production costs at IAC Films related to the release of the movie While We're Young in March 2015, partially offset by decreased production costs at Electus due, in part, to the timing of certain projects.

Selling and marketing expense

Selling and marketing expense consists primarily of advertising expenditures and compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in sales, sales support and customer service functions. Advertising expenditures include online marketing, including fees paid to search engines and third parties that distribute our B2C downloadable applications, and offline marketing, which is primarily television advertising.

Selling and marketing expense in 2015 increased from 2014 due to increases of $18.2 million from Search & Applications, $16.7 million from eCommerce, $6.1 million from Media and $5.5 million from The Match Group.

- The Search & Applications increase was primarily due to a $17.9 million increase in online marketing, which was primarily related to the growth in About.com and new B2C downloadable applications, partially offset by a decline at Ask.com.
- The eCommerce increase was primarily due to increases of $10.9 million in offline and online marketing related to HomeAdvisor and $5.1 million in compensation due, in part, to increased headcount at HomeAdvisor.
- The Media increase was primarily due to an increase of $5.4 million in online marketing at Vimeo.
- The Match Group increase was primarily due to the acquisition of The Princeton Review and an increase in compensation.

Selling and marketing expense in 2015 increased from 2014 due to increases of $40.2 million from Search & Applications, $32.3 million from eCommerce, $20.8 million from The Match Group and $11.4 million from Media.

- The increases from Search & Applications, eCommerce, The Match Group and Media are primarily due to the factors described above in the three month discussion.
- The Match Group increase was also impacted by an increase in online marketing at Dating and DailyBurn.

General and administrative expense

General and administrative expense consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in executive management, finance, legal, tax and human resources, facilities costs and fees for professional services.

For the three months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2014

As a percentage of revenue	17%			15%

General and administrative expense in 2015 increased from 2014 due to increases of $14.4 million from The Match Group and $7.7 million from Corporate.

- The Match Group increase was primarily due to the acquisition of The Princeton Review, an increase in severance expense and costs in the current year related to our ongoing consolidation and streamlining of technology systems and European operations at our Dating businesses.
- The Corporate increase was primarily due to an increase in stock-based compensation expense, which was driven by the issuance of equity awards since the prior year.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2014

	Six Months Ended June 30,			2014

General and administrative expense in 2015 increased from 2014 due to increases of $21.6 million from The Match Group, $9.6 million from Corporate, $5.6 million from eCommerce and $3.9 million from Search & Applications.

- The Match Group increase was primarily due to the factors described above in the three month discussion. General and administrative expense was also impacted by a decrease of $12.9 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments, partially offset by a $3.9 million benefit in the prior year related to the expiration of the statute of limitations for a non-income tax matter.
- The Corporate increase was primarily due to an increase in stock-based compensation expense, which was driven by a higher number of forfeited awards in the prior year, the impact of a modification of certain awards in the current year and the issuance of equity awards since the prior year.
- The eCommerce increase was primarily due to increases in compensation and employee-related costs as a result of increased headcount and an increase in bad debt expense at HomeAdvisor.
- The Search & Applications increase was primarily due to acquisitions and an increase in bad debt expense, partially offset by $2.3 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments.

Product development expense

Product development expense consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs that are not capitalized for personnel engaged in the design, development, testing and enhancement of product offerings and related technology.

Refer to Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements for reconciliations of Adjusted EBITDA to operating income (loss) by reportable segment.

For the three months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2014

Search & Applications Adjusted EBITDA decreased 20% due primarily to lower revenue and an increase in selling and marketing expense, partially offset by a decrease in cost of revenue. The increase in selling and marketing expense was primarily due to an increase in online marketing related to About.com and new B2C downloadable applications, partially offset by a decline at Ask.com. The decrease in cost of revenue was primarily due to a decrease in traffic acquisition costs driven from lower revenue from Ask.com and our B2B operations.

The Match Group Adjusted EBITDA decreased 7% despite higher revenue primarily due to $9.0 million of costs in the current year related to our ongoing consolidation and streamlining of technology systems and European operations at our Dating businesses, losses from The Princeton Review, which was acquired on August 1, 2014, and higher cost of revenue. The increase in cost of revenue was primarily due to increases in revenue share payments made in connection with in-app purchases sold through Dating's mobile products and hosting fees.

Media Adjusted EBITDA loss was larger than the prior year due primarily to increased investment in online marketing at Vimeo.

eCommerce Adjusted EBITDA decreased 41%, principally due to increased investment in offline and online marketing and higher compensation at HomeAdvisor.

Corporate Adjusted EBITDA loss increased due to higher compensation.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2014

Search & Applications Adjusted EBITDA decreased 12% due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

The Match Group Adjusted EBITDA decreased 22% due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion. Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by an increase in selling and marketing expense and a $3.9 million benefit in the prior year related to the expiration of the statute of limitations for a non-income tax matter. The increase in selling and marketing expense was primarily due to an increase in online marketing at Dating and DailyBurn.

Media Adjusted EBITDA loss was larger than the prior year, due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

eCommerce Adjusted EBITDA turned to a loss in the current year, despite higher revenue, principally due to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

Corporate Adjusted EBITDA loss decreased due to lower compensation.

For the three months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2014

Operating income in 2015 decreased from 2014 due to the decrease of $32.8 million in Adjusted EBITDA described above and increases of $9.4 million in stock-based compensation and $1.0 million in amortization of intangibles, partially offset by a decrease of $10.5 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments. The increase in stock-based compensation was primarily due to the issuance of equity awards since the prior year. The decrease in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments was the result of an update of the future forecast of earnings and operating metrics related to certain acquired businesses.

At June 30, 2015, there was $186.2 million of unrecognized compensation cost, net of estimated forfeitures, related to all equity-based awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 2.7 years.

For the six months ended June 30, 2015 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2014

Operating income in 2015 decreased from 2014 due to the decrease of $65.7 million in Adjusted EBITDA described above and increases of $18.7 million in stock-based compensation, $1.6 million in amortization of intangibles and $1.0 million in depreciation, partially offset by a decrease of $17.4 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments. The increase in stock-based compensation and decrease in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments are primarily due to the factors described above in the three month discussion. Stock-based compensation was also impacted by a higher number of forfeited awards in the prior year and the impact of a modification of certain awards in the current year.

Interest expense

Interest expense relates to our 4.875% Senior Notes due November 30, 2018 ("2013 Senior Notes"), 4.75% Senior Notes due December 21, 2012 ("2012 Senior Notes") and 5% New York City Industrial Development Agency Liberty Bonds due September 1, 2035 ("Liberty Bonds").

Other expense, net in 2015 decreased from 2014 principally due to the inclusion in the prior year of $64.2 million in other-than-temporary impairment charges related to certain cost method investments. These charges resulted from our assessment of the near-term prospects and financial condition of the investees. Also included in the prior year is a $4.2 million other-than-temporary impairment charge related to an equity method investment following the sale of a majority of the investee's assets.

Income tax benefit (provision)	$11,968	NM	NM	$(29,889)

The 2015 income tax benefit is due primarily to the realization of certain deferred tax assets, a reduction in tax reserves and related interest due to the expiration of statutes of limitations, and the non-taxable gain on contingent consideration fair value adjustments in the current year period, partially offset by state taxes. The 2014 effective income tax rate is higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to the largely unbenefited loss associated with the write-downs of certain of the Company's investments, interest on reserves for income tax contingencies and state taxes, partially offset by foreign income taxed at lower rates.

The 2015 income tax benefit is due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion. The 2014 effective income tax rate is higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to the factors described above in the three month discussion.

The Company recognizes interest and, if applicable, penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax provision. Included in the income tax provision for continuing operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, is a $0.1 million benefit and a $0.2 million benefit, respectively, net of related deferred taxes, for interest on unrecognized tax benefits. At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company has accrued $2.2 million and $2.8 million, respectively, for the payment of interest. At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, the Company has accrued $2.3 million and $2.9 million, respectively, for penalties.

The Company is routinely under audit by federal, state, local and foreign authorities in the area of income tax. These audits include questioning the timing and the amount of income and deductions and the allocation of income and deductions among various tax jurisdictions. The Internal Revenue Service is currently auditing the Company's federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2010 through 2012. Various other jurisdictions are open to examination for various tax years beginning with 2009. Income taxes payable include reserves considered sufficient to pay assessments that may result from examination of prior year tax returns. Changes to reserves from period to period and differences between amounts paid, if any, upon resolution of audits and amounts previously provided may be material. Differences between the reserves for uncertain tax positions and the amounts owed by the Company are recorded in the period they become known.

At June 30, 2015 and December 31, 2014, unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, are $25.9 million and $33.2 million, respectively. If unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2015 are subsequently recognized, $23.9 million, net of related deferred tax assets and interest, would reduce income tax provision for continuing operations. The Company believes that it is reasonably possible that its unrecognized tax benefits could decrease by $3.4 million within twelve months of June 30, 2015 primarily due to settlements and expiration of statutes of limitations.

⁽²⁾ Internationally, cash equivalents primarily consist of AAA rated money market funds and time deposits. If needed for our U.S. operations, most of the cash and cash equivalents held by the Company's foreign subsidiaries could be repatriated; however, under current law, would be subject to U.S. federal and state income taxes. We have not provided for any such tax because the Company currently does not anticipate a need to repatriate these funds to finance our U.S. operations and it is the Company's intent to indefinitely reinvest these funds outside of the U.S.

⁽³⁾ Marketable securities consist of short-to-medium-term debt securities issued by investment grade corporate issuers and an equity security. The Company invests in marketable debt securities with active secondary or resale markets to ensure portfolio liquidity to fund current operations or satisfy other cash requirements as needed. The Company also invests in equity securities as part of its investment strategy.

Cash Flow Information

In summary, the Company's cash flows attributable to continuing operations are as follows:

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2015	2014
	(In thousands)
Net cash provided by operating activities	$85,779	$148,771
Net cash used in investing activities	(152,864)	(219,833)
Net cash used in financing activities	(261,533)	(46,437)

2015

Net cash provided by operating activities attributable to continuing operations consists of earnings or loss from continuing operations adjusted for non-cash items, including stock-based compensation expense, depreciation, amortization of intangibles, asset impairment charges, excess tax benefits from stock-based awards, deferred income taxes, equity in earnings or losses of unconsolidated affiliates, acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments and the effect of changes in working capital. Net cash provided by operating activities attributable to continuing operations in 2015 consists of earnings from continuing operations of $79.7 million and adjustments for non-cash items of $66.1 million, partially offset by a $60.1 million decrease in cash from changes in working capital. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $44.9 million of stock-based compensation, $31.1 million of depreciation and $27.0 million of amortization of intangibles, partially offset by $36.5 million of excess tax benefits from stock-based awards and $16.9 million in acquisition-related contingent consideration fair value adjustments. The decrease from changes in working capital consist primarily of a decrease in income taxes payable of $63.3 million and a decrease of $33.2 million in accounts payable and other current liabilities, partially offset by an increase in deferred revenue of $40.4 million. The decrease in income taxes payable is primarily due to the payment of 2014 tax liabilities in 2015 and the realization of a capital loss in the current year. The decrease in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due mainly to a decrease in accrued revenue share and accrued advertising expense at the Search & Applications segment, partially offset by an increase in accrued advertising at The Match Group segment. The decrease at Search & Applications in accrued revenue share is due mainly to lower B2B revenue. The decrease at Search & Applications in accrued advertising is due mainly to lower fees paid to search engines and timing of payments. The increase in accrued advertising at The Match Group segment is due mainly to increased online spending. The increase in deferred revenue is due mainly to growth in subscription revenue at The Match Group, Vimeo, and HomeAdvisor, as well as an increase at Electus due to the timing of cash received related to various production deals, and acquisitions.

Net cash used in investing activities attributable to continuing operations in 2015 includes the purchase of marketable debt securities, net of proceeds from maturities and sales, of $78.5 million, the purchase of investments and acquisitions of $56.1 million and capital expenditures of $26.8 million, primarily related to the internal development of software to support our products and services, and computer hardware.

Net cash used in financing activities attributable to continuing operations in 2015 includes $200.0 million for the repurchase of 3.0 million shares of common stock at an average price of $67.68 per share, $56.7 million related to the payment of cash dividends to IAC shareholders, $20.7 million in proceeds related to the issuance of common stock, net of withholding taxes, $15.3 million for the purchase of noncontrolling interests and $5.7 million in contingent consideration payments, partially offset by excess tax benefits from stock-based awards of $36.5 million.

Net cash provided by operating activities attributable to continuing operations in 2014 consists of earnings from continuing operations of $16.3 million and adjustments for non-cash items of $133.5 million, partially offset by a decrease in cash from changes in working capital of $1.0 million. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $64.3 million in impairments related to long-term investments, $30.1 million of depreciation, $26.2 million of stock-based compensation expense and $25.4 million of amortization of intangibles, partially offset by $32.9 million of excess tax benefits from stock-based awards. The decrease in cash from changes in working capital activities primarily consists of a decrease of $31.2 million in accounts payable and other current liabilities and an increase in other assets of $19.2 million, partially offset by an increase in income taxes payable of $29.3 million and an increase in deferred revenue of $25.9 million. The decrease in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due to a decrease in accrued revenue share, accrued employee compensation and benefits, and a seasonal decrease in payables to suppliers at ShoeBuy, partially offset by an increase in accrued advertising expense at The Match Group. The decrease in accrued revenue share is primarily due to lower B2B revenue in the Search & Applications segment. The decrease in accrued employee compensation and benefits is due to the payment of 2013 cash bonuses in 2014. The increase in other assets is primarily due to a receivable related to amounts collected on our behalf by a third-party and an increase in short-term and long-term production costs at certain of our media businesses that are capitalized as the television program, video or film is being produced. The increase in income taxes payable is due to current year income tax accruals in excess of current year income tax payments. The increase in deferred revenue is primarily due to growth in subscription revenue at The Match Group and Vimeo as well as an increase at Electus due to the timing of cash received related to various production deals.

Net cash used in investing activities attributable to continuing operations in 2014 includes cash consideration used in acquisitions and investments of $118.1 million, which includes the acquisition of the ValueClick O&O website businesses and SlimWare, the purchase of marketable debt securities of $78.4 million and capital expenditures of $26.6 million, primarily related to the internal development of software to support our products and services.

Net cash used in financing activities attributable to continuing operations in 2014 includes $40.1 million, related to the payment of cash dividends to IAC shareholders, $30.0 million for the purchase of noncontrolling interests, $13.8 million in proceeds related to the issuance of common stock, net of withholding taxes and $7.6 million in contingent consideration payments related principally to the 2013 Twoo acquisition, partially offset by excess tax benefits from stock-based awards of $32.9 million and the return of $12.4 million of funds held in escrow related to the Meetic tender offer.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's principal sources of liquidity are its cash and cash equivalents and marketable securities as well as cash flows generated from operations. The Company has a $300 million revolving credit facility, which expires on December 21, 2017, and is available as an additional source of financing. At June 30, 2015, there were no outstanding borrowings under the revolving credit facility.

The Company anticipates that it will need to make capital and other expenditures in connection with the development and expansion of its operations. The Company expects that 2015 capital expenditures will be higher than 2014. At June 30, 2015, IAC had 5.6 million shares remaining in its share repurchase authorization. IAC may purchase shares over an indefinite period of time on the open market and in privately negotiated transactions, depending on those factors IAC management deems relevant at any particular time, including, without limitation, market conditions, share price and future outlook. On July 28, 2015, IAC declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.34 per share of common and Class B common stock outstanding payable on September 1, 2015 to stockholders of record on August 15, 2015. Future declarations of dividends are subject to the determination of IAC's Board of Directors.

The Company believes its existing cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities, together with its expected positive cash flows generated from operations and available borrowing capacity under its $300 million revolving credit facility, will be sufficient to fund its normal operating requirements, including capital expenditures, quarterly cash dividends, and investing and other commitments for the foreseeable future. Our liquidity could be negatively affected by a decrease in demand for our products and services. The $575 million purchase price of the planned acquisition of PlentyOfFish, which was announced on July 14, 2015, is expected to be funded by cash on hand, the proceeds from the sales of marketable securities and the available borrowings under the $300 million revolving credit facility. The Company may make additional acquisitions and investments and, as a result, the Company may need to raise additional capital through future debt or equity financing to provide for greater financial flexibility. Additional financing may not be available at all or on terms favorable to us. The indentures governing the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness in the event we are not in compliance with the maximum leverage ratio of 3.0 to 1.0. In addition, the terms of the revolving credit facility require that we maintain a leverage ratio of not more than 3.0 to 1.0 and restrict our ability to incur additional indebtedness. As of June 30, 2015, the Company was in compliance with all of these covenants.

- (c) The Company leases land, office space, data center facilities and equipment used in connection with operations under various operating leases, many of which contain escalation clauses. The Company is also committed to pay a portion of the related operating expenses under a data center lease agreement. These operating expenses are not included in the table above.
- (d) The purchase obligations primarily include advertising commitments, which commitments are reducible or terminable such that these commitments can never exceed associated revenue by a meaningful amount.

IAC'S PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIAL REPORTING

IAC reports Adjusted EBITDA as a supplemental measure to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). This measure is one of the primary metrics by which we evaluate the performance of our businesses, on which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. We believe that investors should have access to, and we are obligated to provide, the same set of tools that we use in analyzing our results. This non-GAAP measure should be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP, but should not be considered a substitute for or superior to GAAP results. IAC endeavors to compensate for the limitations of the non-GAAP measure presented by providing the comparable GAAP measure with equal or greater prominence and descriptions of the reconciling items, including quantifying such items, to derive the non-GAAP measure. We encourage investors to examine the reconciling adjustments between the GAAP and non-GAAP measure, which we discuss below.

Definition of IAC's Non-GAAP Measure

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of (i) amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets and (ii) gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements. We believe this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to IAC's statement of operations of certain expenses.

Non-Cash Expenses That Are Excluded From IAC's Non-GAAP Measure

Stock-based compensation expense consists principally of expense associated with the grants, including unvested grants assumed in acquisitions, of stock options, restricted stock units ("RSUs") and performance-based RSUs. These expenses are not paid in cash, and we include the related shares in our fully diluted shares outstanding using the treasury stock method; however, performance-based RSUs are included only to the extent the performance criteria have been met (assuming the end of the reporting period is the end of the contingency period). Upon the exercise of certain stock options and vesting of RSUs and performance-based RSUs, the awards are settled, at the Company's discretion, on a net basis, with the Company remitting the required tax-withholding amount from its current funds.

Depreciation is a non-cash expense relating to our property and equipment and is computed using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated useful lives.

Amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets are non-cash expenses. At the time of an acquisition, the identifiable definite-lived intangible assets of the acquired company, such as content, technology, customer lists, advertiser and supplier relationships, are valued and amortized over their estimated lives. Value is also assigned to acquired indefinite-lived intangible assets, which comprise trade names and trademarks, and goodwill that are not subject to amortization. An impairment is recorded when the carrying value of an intangible asset or goodwill exceeds its fair value. While it is likely that we will have significant intangible amortization expense as we continue to acquire companies, we believe that intangible assets represent costs incurred by the acquired company to build value prior to acquisition and the related amortization and impairment charges of goodwill or intangible assets, if applicable, are not ongoing costs of doing business.

Gains and losses recognized on changes in the fair value of contingent consideration arrangements are accounting adjustments to report contingent consideration liabilities at fair value. These adjustments can be highly variable and are excluded from our assessment of performance because they are considered non-operational in nature and, therefore, are not indicative of current or future performance or ongoing costs of doing business.

RECONCILIATION OF ADJUSTED EBITDA

For a reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA to operating income (loss) by reportable segment for the three and six months ended June 30, 2015 and 2014, see Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

At June 30, 2015, there have been no material changes to the Company's instruments or positions that are sensitive to interest rate risk and equity price risk since the disclosure in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Foreign Currency Exchange Risk

The Company conducts business in certain foreign markets, primarily in the European Union. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2015, international revenue accounted for 27% and 26%, respectively, of consolidated revenue. The Company's primary exposure to foreign currency exchange risk relates to investments in foreign subsidiaries that transact business in a functional currency other than the U.S. Dollar, primarily the Euro. As foreign currency exchange rates change, translation of the statements of operations of the Company's international businesses into U.S. dollars affects year-over-year comparability of operating results. The average Euro versus the U.S. Dollar exchange rate was 18% lower in the second quarter of 2015 than 2014. The decrease had a significant impact to the revenue of The Match Group. For the three months ended June 30, 2015, The Match Group revenue, Dating revenue and Dating International revenue would have increased approximately 25%, 14% and 18%, respectively, as compared to the reported increases of 19% and 7% and a decrease of 2%, respectively, had the foreign currency exchange rates been the same as the second quarter of 2014. For the six months ended June 30, 2015, The Match Group revenue, Dating revenue and Dating International revenue would have increased approximately 22%, 11% and 13%, respectively, as compared to the reported increases of 16% and 5% and a decrease of 5%, respectively, had the foreign currency exchange rates been the same as the first six months of 2014.

Historically, the Company has not hedged any foreign currency exposures. Our continued international expansion increases our exposure to exchange rate fluctuations and as a result such fluctuations could have a significant impact on our future results of operations.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

The Company monitors and evaluates on an ongoing basis its disclosure controls and internal control over financial reporting in order to improve its overall effectiveness. In the course of these evaluations, the Company modifies and refines its internal processes as conditions warrant.

As required by Rule 13a-15(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), IAC management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as defined by Rule 13a-15(e) under the Exchange Act. Based on this evaluation, management has concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this report in providing reasonable assurance that information we are required to disclose in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and Forms, and include controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

There were no changes to the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the period covered by this report that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II
OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The use of words such as "anticipates," "estimates," "expects," "intends," "plans" and "believes," among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, among others, statements relating to: IAC's future financial performance, IAC's business prospects and strategy, anticipated trends and prospects in the industries in which IAC's businesses operate and other similar matters. These forward-looking statements are based on IAC management's current expectations and assumptions about future events, which are inherently subject to uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict.

Actual results could differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including, among others: changes in senior management at IAC and/or its businesses, changes in our relationship with, or policies implemented by, Google, adverse changes in economic conditions, either generally or in any of the markets or industries in which IAC's businesses operate, adverse trends in the online advertising industry or the advertising industry generally, our ability to convert visitors to our various websites into users and customers, our ability to offer new or alternative products and services in a cost-effective manner and consumer acceptance of these products and services, changes in industry standards and technology, actual tax liabilities that differ materially from our estimates, operational and financial risks relating to acquisitions, our ability to expand successfully into international markets and regulatory changes. Certain of these and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in IAC's filings with the SEC, including in Part I "Item 1A. Risk Factors" of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. Other unknown or unpredictable factors that could also adversely affect IAC's business, financial condition and operating results may arise from time to time. In light of these risks and uncertainties, the forward-looking statements discussed in this report may not prove to be accurate. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which only reflect the views of IAC management as of the date of this quarterly report. IAC does not undertake to update these forward-looking statements.

Risk Factors

In addition to the other information set forth in this quarterly report, you should carefully consider the risk factors discussed in Part I "Item 1A. Risk Factors" of our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, which could materially affect our business, financial condition or future operating results. The risks described in this report are not the only risks we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial also may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition and/or future operating results.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Issuer Purchases of Equity Securities

The Company did not purchase any shares of its common stock during the quarter ended June 30, 2015. As of that date, 5,606,904 shares of common stock remained available for repurchase under the Company's previously announced April 2013 repurchase authorization. IAC may purchase shares pursuant to this repurchase authorization over an indefinite period in the open market and/or privately negotiated transactions, depending on those factors IAC management deems relevant at any particular time, including, without limitation, market conditions, share price and future outlook.

I, Barry Diller, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2015 of IAC/InterActiveCorp;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer(s) and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - a) Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer(s) and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
