Non-GAAP Financial Measures. This presentation contains references to certain non-GAAP measures. These measures should be considered in conjunction with, but not as a substitute for, financial information presented in accordance with GAAP. The location of reconciliations to GAAP measures of non-GAAP measures are referenced on the page on which such non-GAAP measure appears, or are included in the Appendix to this presentation.

Forward-Looking Statements. This presentation, dated December 8, 2016, may contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The use of words such as "estimates," "expects" and "believes," among others, generally identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, among others, statements relating to: IAC's future financial performance, IAC's business prospects, strategy and anticipated trends in the industries in which IAC's businesses operate and other similar matters. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations and assumptions about future events, which are inherently subject to uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Actual results could differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements for a variety of reasons, including, among others: changes in senior management, changes in our relationship with, or policies implemented by, Google, adverse changes in economic conditions, adverse trends in any of the industries in which IAC's businesses operate, our dependence on third parties to drive traffic to our websites and distribute our services in a cost-effective manner, our ability to convert visitors to our various websites into users and customers, our ability to offer new or alternative services that resonate with consumers in a cost-effective manner, our ability to build, maintain and/or enhance our various brands, our ability to develop and monetize mobile versions of our various services, changes in industry standards, the integrity and scalability of our systems and infrastructure, our ability to protect our systems from cyberattacks, risks relating to acquisitions and our ability to expand successfully into international markets. Certain of these and other risks and uncertainties are discussed in IAC's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Other unknown or unpredictable factors that could also adversely affect IAC's business, financial condition and results of operations may arise from time to time. In light of these risks and uncertainties, these forward-looking statements may not prove to be accurate. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which only reflect the views of IAC management as of the date of this presentation. IAC does not undertake to update these forward-looking statements.
